

Chapter 1

Native Americans Before the Conquest

Prehistoric: Paleo, Archaic, Eastern Woodland, and Mississippian

Maya Aztec

Natives at the coming of Europeans

Conditions of Conquest

Cultural Negotiations

Threats to Survival: Columbian Exchange

West Africa: Ancient and Complex Societies

Ghana and Mali

Slave Trade

Mansa Musa and the coming of Europeans

Europe on the Eve of Conquest

Crusades

Marco Polo

New Tech and the Portuguese

Christopher Columbus

Spain in the Americas

The Conquistadores: Faith and Greed

From Plunder to Settlement

The French Claim Canada

Jacques Cartier

Samuel de Champlain

The Huguenots

The Gulf Coast

The Dutch

The English Take up the Challenge

Birth of English Protestantism

Religion, War, and Nationalism

Chapter 2

Breaking Away: Decisions to Move to America

The Chesapeake: Dreams of Wealth

Entrepreneurs in Virginia

Threat of Anarchy

Tobacco Saves Virginia

Time of Reckoning

Maryland: A Catholic Refuge

A "New" England in America

The Puritan Migration to Massachusetts

"A City on a Hill"

Competing Truths in New England

Mobility and Division

Diversity in the Middle Colonies

Anglo-Dutch Rivalry on the Hudson

Quakers in America

Penn's "Holy Experiment"

Planting the Southern Colonies

Founding the Carolinas

Founding of Georgia

Chapter 3

Social Stability: New England Colonies of the Seventeenth Century

Immigrant Families and New Social Order
Puritan Women in New England
Establishing a New Social Order

The Challenge of the Chesapeake Environment

Families at Risk
The Structure of Planter Society

Race and Freedom in British America

Roots of Slavery
Constructing African American Identities

Blueprint for Empire

Response to Economic Competition
Regulating Colonial Trade

Colonial Political Revolts

Civil War in Virginia: Bacon's Rebellion
The Glorious Revolution in the Bay Colony
Contagion of Witchcraft

Chapter 4

Tensions in the Backcountry

Scots-Irish Flee English Oppression
Germans Search for a Better Life
Native Americans Stake Out a Middle Ground

Spanish Borderlands of the Eighteenth Century

Conquering the Northern Frontier
Peoples of the Spanish Borderlands

The Impact of European Ideas on American Culture

American Enlightenment
Benjamin Franklin
Economic Transformation
Birth of a Consumer Society

Religious Revivals in Provincial Societies

The Great Awakening
Evangelical Religion

Clash of Political Cultures

Governing the Colonies: The American Experience
Colonial Assemblies

Century of Imperial War

The French Threat
War of Jenkin's Ear and the role of Georgia
King George's War and Its Aftermath
Seven Years' War
Perceptions of War